书面表达

Blogging is getting more and more popular among the teens these days. There are some advantages and disadvantages. For example, we can show our opinions freely in blogs. We can share our happiness and unhappiness with other people, and we can also get some advice or suggestions from our friends.

On the other hand, it isn't safe to show your personal information on the Internet. Some people are not always honest and they sometimes have false information in their blogs.

There are two sides to every coin. In my opinion, we should use the Internet properly and enjoy the advantages of the blogs.
