Two magazines recently listed the best cities to live in. Here are two of the cities listed as " the world's best."

SAN JOSE, COSTARICA The city has comfortable weather all year round (15°C to 26°C). Housing is not very expensive in SAN JOSE. Also, many of the city's older neighborhoods are very beautiful and have small hotels and cafes. Beautiful mountains are around the city. Lots of people go sightseeing there every year. But air pollution is a problem in the city center.

Hong Kong, CHINA This lively city---- once a small fishing village----- is today an international business center. It is an interesting mix of East and West, old and new. Modern tall buildings are next to small temples (庙宇). Popular nightclubs are close to traditional teahouses. Busy people fill the streets at all hours of the day. But outside the city, there are parks for walking or relaxing. Hong Kong is famous for its wonderful native dishes. There's also food from Europe, North America, and other parts of Asia. However, this small city has a large population of nearly seven million! That's why housing is often very expensive. Traffic and air pollution are also a problem.

- () 55. From the passage, we can know that _____.
A. San Jose and Hong Kong are the only two cities of the world's best.
B. Housing in San Jose is not very expensive.
C. the weather in both cities is fine.
D. San Jose used to be a small fishing village.
- B)

Everyone needs friends. There is an old saying "Friends are God's way of taking care of us." But how do you find real friendship and keep it?

The American writer Sally Seamans tells young students some smart ways to find friends. Sally says finding friendship is just like planting a tree. You plant the seed and take care of it to make it grow.

First, you should choose a friend. What makes a Good friend? It is not because a person has money or good looks. A good friend should be kind and patient. For example, if you have a bad day, a good friend should listen to your complaints and do his or her best to help. To make a friend, you can not be too shy. You should make each other happy and share your lives. But things cannot always be happy. Even the best have fights. What should you do when you have a fight with your friend? You have to talk to him or her. When there is no one around, have an honest talk. If he or she doesn't want to talk, you could write a letter.

There are three steps to being friends again:

Tell him or her how you are feeling say what your friend has done wrong, and explain why you did this or that. Remember that friendship is the most important thing in your life.

- () 56. The word "patient" in the first paragraph means _____.
A. 友好 B. 大方 C. 耐心 D. 热情
- () 57. Sally wants to tell students the ways to _____.
A. find friends B. plant trees C. get happy D. keep fit
- () 58. What makes good friends? A good friend should _____.
A. be lovely and cool B. be kind and patient
B. have lots of money D. have good looks
- () 59. According to the text, you can _____ your friend after a fight.
A. buy a present for B. never say a word to
C. have dinner with D. write a letter to
- () 60. What is the best title of the text?
