Once my father and I went to see a circus ( 马戏团 ). A family was standing in front of us 46 for tickets.

The family had eight children. Their clothes were not 47 but they were clean. They were talking about the clowns ( 小丑 ) and elephants excitedly.

"I want 48 tickets, eight for children and two for adults ( 成人 )." said the father to the ticket lady.

The ticket lady told him the 49. When he heard that, the man couldn't believe his 50. He asked again, "How much?"

The ticket lady spoke again. The father looked sad. Clearly, he didn't have 51 money.

My dad took a $20 bill and dropped it on the ground. Then he 52 the bill, and said to the man, "Sir, this fell out of your pocket."

The man knew what was 53 on. He looked into my dad's eyes and took the 54. "Thank you, thank you, sir. This 55 means a lot to me and my family."

We didn't go to the circus that night, but we didn't feel sorry for it at all.

I am Steve. I was born and grew up in South Wales. My favorite place to play was out on the hills where my imagination had plenty of space to expand (拓展).

My family moved out of Wales when I was thirteen. I went to a new school. One of my subjects was French. Because I had never learned any French, my teacher told me to sit in the corner and write anything I was interested in. That's the time I started writing, just for myself, and I've been writing ever since.

I have always loved BIG IDEAS, and so I enjoy writing fantastic stories. And I also write horror (恐怖的) stories. I think they are like the old fairytales (童话故事), and can teach you important things.

I am in my forties on the outside, twelve on the inside. I like rock music, Indian and Chinese food, and I enjoy drinking. I live in a small village with my wife Mary, ducks, cats, goats, hens and lots of rabbits. If you'd like to find out more about me and hope to buy my books, go to www.sbowkett.freemove.co.uk.

Mr. John Heppell
House of Commons
London
SW1AOAA

Monday 12th March 2007

Dear Mr. Heppell,

I am Sabrina Akhtar studying in a high school and I've noticed that forests are disappearing (消失).

You know, forests are disappearing around the world each year. This is because of many different reasons including farming, tourism pollution (污染), etc. If we stop doing these things, there will be a good future for people of tomorrow.

Now I'm writing to ask you to help stop forests from disappearing. You can help by getting shops to stop selling paper made from trees and changing to tree-free paper (paper not made from trees). This will help forests so much. There are many, many things we can do to help forests. If you would like to know more, please visit <http://www.Rainforestweb.Org/>. By changing the little things, we can make a big difference.

If you would like to contact (联系) me, please see the above address or e-mail me at shazadinol@hotmail.co.uk. Thank you for taking your time in reading this letter.

Yours sincerely
Sabrina Akhtar

C

A man came home from work late, tired, to find his 5-year-old son waiting for him at the door.

"Daddy, how much money do you make an hour?"

"If you must know, I make $20 an hour."

"Oh!" the little boy replied, with his head down. He thought for a moment, looked up and said, "Daddy, could you lend me $10?"

The father was furious, "If you asked for the money to buy a toy or some other rubbish, then go straight to your room and think about why you are being so selfish (自私的)!"

The little boy quietly went to his room and shut the door. After about an hour or so, the father calmed (平静) down, and started to think, "Maybe he really needs to buy something and he didn't really ask for money very often." So he went to the little boy's room.

"Sorry! Maybe I was too hard on you just now." said the man, "Here's $10."

"Oh, thank you, Daddy!" he said happily. Then, the boy took out some coins. When the father found that the boy already had money, he got angry again.

"Why do you want more money since you already have some?" the father shouted angrily.

"Because I didn't have enough, but now I do." the little boy replied, "Daddy, I have $20 now. Can I buy an hour of your time? Please come home early tomorrow. I would like to have dinner with you."

D

One day an American called Simon went to London to visit his friend, Rick. Rick told him that his flat was on the first floor. When he arrived, Simon went straight to the first floor of the building. But he was told that there was no Rick on that floor. Do you know why?

In fact, the British call the first floor of a building the ground floor. The floor above the ground floor is the first floor, which Americans would call the second floor.

The story shows that there are a few culture differences between Britain and America, though the British and Americans both speak English.

The British usually hide their feelings. They seldom start a conversation with strangers. For example, on the train the British often spend their time reading newspapers or books. But Americans are quite different. They're more active and easier to talk with.

The British and Americans may use different terms for many things. The British usually use football, eraser and mail while Americans prefer to use soccer, rubber and post.

76. Simon went to London to _____.
A. visit his friend                      B. spend his holiday

78. According to the passage, the British usually spend their time _____ on the train.

June 26th, 2007

Dear Rita,

How is everything going? I'd like to introduce my best friend, Tian Tian, to you. She is 16 years old. She is a lovely girl with a round face and big eyes. She is very kind and easy to get along with. She likes reading and music, and she is especially good at playing the piano. Her favorite subjects are physics and chemistry.

Now she is going to George Spencer School in England to study for one year. I hope you can be good friends. She is arriving at Heathrow Airport at 4pm on Aug. 1st.

Will you please be kind enough to meet her at the airport? Many thanks.

Best wishes.

Yours,
Li Hua.
