A young rich man was traveling down a neighborhood street, going a bit fast in his new sports car. The music was so loud that it drew many people's 36 on the street.

As his car passed, one child appeared, and suddenly a brick(砖块) hit the car's side door. The young man stopped the car and 37 out. Angrily, he grabbed the kid, shouting, "What's the matter with you? That's a new and expensive car. What you did just now will cost me a lot of money. 38 did you do it?"

"Please, sir, please, I'm sorry. I didn't know what else I could do! It's my brother," he said. "He fell out of his wheelchair. I can't lift him up just by 39." Almost crying, the boy asked the man, "Would you please help me get him back into his wheelchair? He's hurt and he's too 40 for me."

The young man was deeply moved and had tears in his eyes. He lifted the kid's brother back into the wheelchair and 41 petted him on the shoulder after that.

"Thank you, sir." the grateful child said to him. The man then watched the little boy push his brother 42 their home.

It was a long walk back to his car ... a long, slow walk. He never got the side door 43. He kept it that way as a reminder. Don't go through life so fast that someone has to throw a brick at you to get your attention. Sometimes, when you are too 44 to listen, life throws a brick at your head. It's your 45. Listen to the whispers of your soul(心声), or wait for the brick!

As you grow rapidly through your teenage years, you will experience a lot of changes. The changes may seem difficult. They may seem to happen quickly. Don't worry! You will deal successfully with them! You are a young adult now!

With more responsibility, you will find more freedom to make your own choices. This is a time to learn to make choices. In this way you can make healthy decisions. They will help lead a better future. For example, you may already know your dream job or you may have no idea at all what you want to do. Both situations are fine! Work hard and the right chance will bring itself to you.

Young adulthood means greater freedom and more choices. You will probably want to be independent.

But try not to shut your family out of your life. You should learn to think of others even though you are old enough to look after yourself.

It is also perfectly natural at this time for you to spend more time with your friends than your family. Choose your friends wisely. A true friend will stand by you no matter what happens.

This period is a part of the life cycle. There are some people who will be with you throughout life's journey. There will be some people with whom you part and go separate ways. Leaving school can be hard. The reality is that you may not even see all of your classmates again.

You are a young adult. It is your life. No one can live it for you. The choices that you make from now on will be your choices. So making the right choices will be important to you. Life is for living. Enjoy your life wisely!

51. According to the writer, _____ makes teenagers worried.

- A. making a rapid progress
- B. experiencing the changes
- C. dealing with difficulties

52. Teenagers will have more freedom to make choices means that they will _____.

- A. choose their own hobbies more freely
- B. have more free time to plan their future
- C. have more chances to decide by themselves

53. As teenagers are becoming more independent, _____.

- A. they don't care about their family any more
- B. they like to stay with their friends more often
- C. they have fewer wise friends to support them

54. It can be difficult for teenagers to _____.

- A. keep a lifelong friend
- B. part with their classmates
- C. go on a journey with others

55. _____ is probably the best title of the article.

- A. Making Choices Wisely
- B. Planning a Good Future
- C. Enjoying the Family Time

IX. 阅读理解(二) (每小题 2 分, 共 20 分)

根据短文内容, 从方框内所给的选项中选出能填入空白处的最佳选项, 并在答题卡上将该选项涂黑。

Many students around the world have recently finished their classes before taking a holiday break. 61 Those who studied surely did well. This reminds me of the best advice I ever received from my favorite teacher — and I was not all that happy to hear it at the time. He said, “Study your whole life. Study everything.”

This wasn't what I wanted to hear. I was not a patient student. I was the type who preferred to have fun then study madly through the night before the test. I certainly didn't want to think about studying my whole life. But I have realized my teacher was right. 62

Think of it in terms of an athlete. Does an athlete stop practicing when he turns professional? Of course not. He continues to practice. The day he stops, he is no longer an athlete. The same is true in any job. 63 But when you leave school, that is hardly the time to stop studying — just as it would be a terrible time for an athlete to stop practicing. As you enter professional life, you need to study to keep your job and even do better by always learning more.

What do I mean by studying? Study anything. Everything.

- ◆ Study a new language. This stimulates your mind.
- ◆ Study history. 64
- ◆ Study success. All over the world, new ways of doing things are being invented.

When we study from successful people and organizations, we see ways we can improve our own lives today.

Study your whole life, even if it is just an hour a day. 65 What will that person be able to do?

- A. The key to success is never stop studying.
- B. When you are in school, of course you study.
- C. I have no doubt they had tests before their classes ended.
- D. I am often inspired by great people and great moments in history.
- E. The studying you do today will decide the person you will be in five years.
