

2020年7月大学英语六级写作真题解析及范文

上海新东方 四六级教研组 郑晶

题目: The best preparation for tomorrow is doing your best today.

总评: 本次考试作文题目仍然不出所料, 典型的“正能量”“重要性”话题。转换成我们熟悉的思路就是“the importance of doing your best today”

结构上还是按照典型的议论文写法, 分为三段(引起话题-观点-总结), 分论点之间添加合适的逻辑关系词。

内容从我们课上固定的角度思考即可。

范文:

Everyone wants to achieve success. Many are busy preparing themselves for an overnight success, while few realize that doing their best today is the best preparation for tomorrow. It is no exaggeration to say that no one can ever achieve success without doing every small thing well day in and day out.

Countless examples have helped prove this truth. Yu Minhong, the founder of XDF, took the University entrance exam three times in purpose of seeking a better life and started his career with setting up a training center that latter became very successful. Apparently, it is his patience to do his best every day that has made him see a bigger world and become a better person. In addition, he mentioned several times how important it is to live in the moment and seize every day to do his best no matter how much failure he encountered. Thus, there is no doubt that doing your best today paves the way for your future.

As a college student, I consider that only by doing our best can we make more progress. Therefore, parents and teachers are supposed to encourage their kids to be patient and do their best every day. (199 words)
