【范文】

There is an saying goes, “the best preparation for tomorrow is doing best today.” Although the sentence is simple, the meaning behind it is far-reaching and thought-provoking. It informs us that people need to seize the moment and do their utmost on every single day to achieve their goals.

To illustrate the fact that nothing is more important than to take immediate action for the future, let me offer a wonderful story of a distinguished football player called Sadio Mane. He was born in a remote country in Senegal and had a dream of becoming a famous football star. Even having no decent pairs of shoes, he did not just give it up but practiced everyday for his dream. Consequently, he realized his dream.

To sum up, to pursue our goals, we must take everyday action and should not waste any moment. Our future is closely related to what we do today
