

Directions: "What is worth doing is worth doing well."

【范文】

It is well-known to us that the proverb 'What is worth doing is worth doing well' has a profound significance and value not only in our job but also in our study. It means if we make up our mind to do something, we should try our utmost to do it best. The saying can be illustrated through the following example.

Ma Yun, founder of Alibaba, could be one of the most convincing cases of how the spirit works in the course of pursuing success. Having been doubted by his colleagues and families that he could succeed in Internet business, he stuck to his dream and set up one of the earliest Internet companies in China, so far he has made great success and even Li Keqiang, Chinese premier, had an interview with him. Therefore, it goes without saying that it is of great importance to practice the proverb: 'What is worth doing is worth doing well.'

With the rapid development of science and technology in China, an increasing number of people come to realize that it is also of practical use to stick to the saying: 'What is worth doing is worth doing well.' The more we are aware of the significance of this famous saying, the more benefits we will get in our daily study and job.
