My hometown, Wanning, Hainan, ~~which~~ is a lively city within a 90-minute drive from Sanya. It enjoys a warm climate with an annual average temperatures of 20°C. It is the better surfing spot with many international competitions hold there temperature best held each year. Riyue Bay, located 25km south of Wanning, is my favourite place. With its strong waves, Riyue Bay is a ideal an beach for surfing, what always offers an incredible surfing experience. Taxis at Wanning Station are plentiful. Ignore others which other vehicles and head directly to the taxi line. Your totally travel time to Riyue Bay should be 40 minutes or so. It is a long but total and slightly expensive road, but it is worth a visit!
