Dear Mike,

In my junior life, there are many moments that cannot be forgotten easily. They mean surprise, warmth and satisfaction to me. The following experience is one of them.

I still remember the days last summer when I was interested in collecting model cars. One day, I went to a toy store. After looking through all the latest models, I made up my mind to buy one of them. From then on, I began to save some pocket money. Unluckily, when I could afford to buy one, it was sold out. A few days later, my birthday came. Much to my surprise, my favorite model car was given by mom as a gift. She bought it secretly online. I was so excited that I hugged and thanked her. Meanwhile, a sense of satisfaction and warmth rose from the bottom of my heart.

It is my fortune to have a mom like her, who always offers me unexpected surprise in my growth. I strongly believe that it's mom's great love that makes me feel like I am the happiest boy in the world. And those wonderful memories — my little lucky surprises, will always be the treasures in my life.

Yours,

Jim
